Foreword

Life is a variegated display of qualities that have within their grasp the power to make a great person. The paths that a person travels determine the magnitude of his happiness. Life's trials are the ones which are hardest to surmount. Integrity, leadership, sincerity, and knowledge are paths to happiness and success. As we move on to blaze new trails, may we choose paths that lead to the solving of life's problems.

Dedication

Children do not realize
How deep is this their parents love, how wise--
They do not fully understand
The goodness of their guiding hands,
And yet they're always held above
The childhood things that children love,
And as they grow the long years through,
That love for them keeps growing, too,
Until they learn the full extent
Of what their parent's love has meant,
The heartaches they've concealed within,
How truly wonderful they've been!
And here's to our parents beyond compare--
The dearest parents anywhere!
